Colorado Parks and Wildlife offers a Free Lifetime Fishing License to individuals who are totally and permanently disabled. The Attorney General defines a total and permanent disability as any physical or mental impairment which prevents substantial gainful employment, but only if it is reasonably certain that such a disability will continue throughout the lifetime of the disabled person.

You must be a Colorado resident. Resident is a person who has domiciled in Colorado for six (6) months or more, immediately preceding the date of application, and who resides in CO with the genuine intent of making CO their permanent abode, and who, when absent, intends to return to CO.

There are three different ways to show proof of a total and permanent disability. You only need to provide one of the following. NOTE: SPECIFIC LANGUAGE MUST BE USED:

1. Provide documentation that you have been ENTITLED to Social Security Disability Benefits for 7 years or longer. Documentation must specifically use the word ENTITLED/ENTITLEMENT dating back at least 7 years.
2. Provide a physician’s statement, on his/her letterhead, that states a TOTAL AND PERMANENT disability. The physician’s statement must specifically use both words TOTAL/TOTALLY and PERMANENT/PERMANENTLY.
 - a. Example: “John Smith is totally and permanently disabled”.
3. Provide a “Final Admission of Liability” form from the Division of Worker’s Compensation, indicating TOTAL AND PERMANENT disability.

Without proper documentation, we are unable to process your application. Please be sure to fill out the application completely. Any missing information will delay processing of your request. Please mail the application and documentation to: Colorado Parks and Wildlife
