Guides who have worked commercially out of state must have received instruction in the following areas or the equivalent:

- Rigging and maneuvering the vessel;
- River currents, eddies and waves;
- River hazards;
- Types and causes of river rapids;
- Scouting and running rapids;
- River rescue and emergency procedures;
- Minimizing resource impacts; and
- Proper fit, wearing, and use of personal flotation devices.

I declare that I, _____, have received a minimum of fifty hours of on-river training, utilizing paddles and/or oars and any other equipment that I will be using on regulated trips, from an out-of-state outfitter. I also declare that I have received training equivalent to all Colorado River Outfitter Licensing requirements, as required for out-of-state guides (PBR #302 1.c). This includes at least twenty hours of training experience on a river section of comparable difficulty to the section that I will commercially guide.
