

2nd Annual CNAP Volunteer Steward Photo Contest

It's time to submit your best photos of the season to the Colorado Natural Areas Program!

Contest Terms:

Photos must have been taken by a CNAP volunteer at any Colorado designated or registered natural area.

Four categories of photos will be accepted:

- 1) Landscape
- 2) Plants (emphasis on rare species)
- 3) Wildlife (emphasis on rare species)
- 4) Volunteers in action

Please send your high-quality, electronic photos to dnr_cnap@state.co.us no later than Monday November 21st. Include the name of the category for each photo in the email, and only one photo per category, please.

Judging and Prizes:

Photos will be judged by the CNAP Council members and staff at our December 2nd 2016 council meeting. Winners will be announced by Friday, December 9th.

Winning photos from each category will be included in our annual newsletter, and any photos may be used on our CNAP website or other publications. First place winners will receive a prize.

By submitting a photo(s), you give the Colorado Natural Areas Program permission to reproduce and use your photo(s) on their website and in outreach materials with photographer's name.

We're looking forward to your wonderful photos!
