Commissioner Adams'
July 2019 Update

THANK YOU

to the Colorado Cattlemen's Association for a spectacular Convening!

Every June, CCA members meet for a week full of education, networking, committee meetings, and a lot of fun! I attended sessions on state land management, water management and succession planning. I look forward to future collaboration!

THANK YOU

Inclusive Denver: Equity and Accessibility Summit for Action (IDEAS for Action) planners and attendees!

The IDEAS for Action summit, hosted on June 24 - 25, 2019, was a gathering for thought-provoking discussions and solutions-based recommendations for Justice, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion in Denver environmental-based nonprofits. The event was hosted at Community First Foundation in Arvada. I attended session on privilege, micro aggressions and allyship.

Special thanks to C. Parker McMullen Bushman, Vice President of Programs, Butterfly Pavilion, who created this summit and all those who make it a reality! Excellent job and I look forward to future convenings and collaboration!

THANK YOU Great Outdoors Colorado (GOCO)!

On Friday, July 12th at Four Mile Historic Park in Denver, GOCO hosted an outdoor event to connect stakeholders committed to connecting children to the outdoors.

*The event included a screen of the short film, Wilder: A Tale of Love for the Outdoors.

Decolonizing Interpretation

July 30, 2019 - 10a Pacific/1:00p Eastern (1 hr)

Jane Beattie and Bill Gwaltney

Heritage interpretation has both the opportunity and an obligation to be more inclusive of culture and to question dominant and privileged cultural perspectives. What does decolonizing look like and how might each of us do in our own interpretive practices to decolonize our programs, exhibits, and spaces?
