Basis and Purpose:

At its September 5 – 6, 2019, regularly-scheduled meeting, the Colorado Parks and Wildlife Commission adopted emergency rules affecting Chapter W-9 (Wildlife Properties); 2 CCR 406 – 9. The emergency rules created property-specific rules for the Flanders Ranch State Wildlife Area (“SWA”) and added three properties owned by the State Land Board to the list of properties leased to CPW for wildlife-related purposes (collectively, the “Properties”).

The Commission adopted the foregoing rules on an emergency basis as authorized by the Colorado Administrative Procedures Act, CRS § 24-4-103(6)(a). This section authorizes emergency rules where “the agency finds that immediate adoption of the rule is imperatively necessary ... for the preservation of public health, safety, or welfare and compliance” with the APA’s standard rulemaking requirements “would be contrary to the public interest.” The Commission finds such standards are satisfied here.

The Commission is required to develop “a comprehensive program designed to offer the greatest possible variety of wildlife-related recreational opportunity to the people of this state.” CRS, § 33-1-101(1). “Acquiring public access to wildlife-related recreation” is a statutory priority for the Commission. CRS, § 33-4-102.7(1)(7). The Commission has statutory authority to purchase real estate interests. CRS, § 33-1-105.

CPW recently acquired real estate interests in the Properties, including access rights for the public to participate in wildlife-related recreation. On July 18, 2019, the Commission approved a lease amendment between CPW and the State Land Board pertaining to the three State Land Board properties mentioned above. In March 2019, CPW closed on its purchase of an access easement at the Flanders Ranch State Wildlife Area. These recent events make it necessary to formalize the circumstances under which the public can access the Properties.

Absent the emergency rules, such properties would be effectively closed to hunting due to a lack of applicable regulations, which would be contrary to CPW’s mandate to provide the greatest possible variety of wildlife-related recreational opportunities to the people of this state. Accordingly, the emergency rules are necessary to open the Properties to hunting and other wildlife-related recreation as more fully defined and limited in the rules.

CPW has, to the extent it could, given notice of its emergency rule-making and allowed for public participation in the adoption of the emergency regulations. Notice of the proposed emergency rule-making was posted at the State Capitol, at the Division of Parks and Wildlife headquarters, Regional Service Centers, and Area Service Centers (area offices), indicating the Commission would consider the emergency regulations at its meeting on September 5 – 6, 2019, and an opportunity to comment was provided to members of the public at that time.

The statements of basis and purpose for these regulations can be viewed and copies obtained from the Colorado Division of Parks and Wildlife, Office of the Regulations Manager, Policy and Planning Unit, 1313 Sherman, Room 111, Denver, CO 80203.

The primary statutory authority for these regulations can be found in § 24-4-103, C.R.S., and the state Wildlife Act, §§ 33-1-101 to 33-6-209, C.R.S., specifically including, but not limited to: §§ 33-1-106 and 33-1-107, C.R.S.

EFFECTIVE DATE - THESE EMERGENCY REGULATIONS SHALL BECOME EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY UPON ADOPTION AND SHALL REMAIN IN EFFECT FOR NO MORE THAN 120 DAYS OR UNTIL PERMANENT REGULATIONS TAKE EFFECT, WHICHEVER OCCURS FIRST, OR

THE EMERGENCY REGULATIONS ARE OTHERWISE REPEALED, AMENDED, OR SUPERSEDED.
