RE: Chapter W-0 and related provision of Chapter W-16 Final Regulations for the January 2023 Parks and Wildlife Commission Meeting
DATE: January 6, 2023

Final regulatory changes for Chapter W-0 and related provisions of Chapter W-16 are summarized below. If there are questions about the agenda item below, or if additional information is needed, please feel free to contact me at hilary.hernandez@state.co.us.

Agenda Item 9: Chapter W-0 - “General Provisions” 2 CCR 406-0 and those related provisions of Chapter W-16 (“Parks and Wildlife Procedural Rules” 2 CCR 406-16) necessary to accommodate changes to or ensure consistency with Chapter W-0

Modifying the Game Management Unit boundaries for 123, 124, 125, 128, 129, and 135.

GMU 129 will be expand to include the river corridor from Pueblo to Highway 71. This realignment will allow hunters to hunt both sides of public and private properties that straddle the Arkansas River that they have not been allowed to do previously. It will also improve management and inventory actions for the deer herds in this area. The new boundary will split areas predominated by white-tailed deer from areas predominated by mule deer, therefore, increasing CPW’s ability for species-specific management of white-tailed deer and mule deer. The boundary change will also allow elk management to be consistent on both sides of the Arkansas River corridor.

Modifying the Game Management Unit boundaries for 008 and 191.

The boundary between GMUs 008 and 191 will be realigned to simplify the boundary and allow for greater hunting opportunities in GMU 191. The boundary between the two units was adopted many years ago in response to elk movements that no longer apply and was confusing to hunters. The boundary realignment should provide clear boundaries between the two units while also mitigating hunter crowding in GMU 008 by redistributing some hunters into GMU 191.

Modifying the hunting closure on Mount Evans

By moving the hunting closure along Colo 5 from a 1/2 (one-half) mile closure to a 1/4 (one-quarter) mile closure when the road is open to motorized traffic will expand the hunting opportunity in the area. This will open up approximately a one-mile wide by a 15-mile long section of wildlife habitat for hunting. The 1/4 (one-quarter) mile closure is also the distance that is used in other parts of the state to reduce conflicts between general recreational users, motorists, and hunters. The 1/2 (one-half) mile closure will remain in effect for ptarmigan at all times as recommended by researchers after years of study of ptarmigan in this area.

Modifying the reasonable accommodations section of the regulations

The Colorado Parks and Wildlife Commission (Commission or CPW) issues this statement of basis and purpose pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, § 24-4-103(4)(c), CRS. This statement relates to new and amended rules adopted by the Commission on January 17, 2023, regarding accommodations for persons with disabilities. CPW repealed W-0:005 in its entirety and recodified amended accommodation regulations in W-16:1680.

Federal and state law prohibit state and local governments from unlawfully discriminating on the basis of disability in their services, programs, and activities. See 42 USC § 12132 (Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)); § 24-34-801, CRS (Colorado statute prohibiting such discrimination). Colorado statutes and regulations related to accommodations for persons with disabilities are intended to be “substantially equivalent to federal law.” 3 CCR § 708-1:60.1. This means that Colorado law provides substantive rights, procedures, and remedies comparable to federal law. CPW updated its regulations in this rulemaking to be more consistent with developments in the law.

I. Background and the Amended ADA

In 1990, the federal ADA was signed into law. The US Supreme Court subsequently issued rulings narrowly construing the ADA, making it more difficult for people to obtain protection under the law. In 2008, congress amended the ADA to reverse these narrow rulings and to make it easier for people to obtain protection. In 2010, the Department of Justice (DOJ) issued new regulations implementing the amended ADA, codified at 28 C.F.R. § 35. Federal disability statutes and regulations apply to CPW regardless of whether CPW has similar regulations. For this reason, it is unnecessary and potentially confusing for CPW to have lengthy regulations attempting to paraphrase federal law. This statement explains the regulatory changes CPW made in this rulemaking and its reasons for doing so.

II. Purposes of the amended regulations

- A. Relocation of CPW’s disability related regulations - Prior to this rulemaking, CPW’s disability related regulations were codified in Chapter W:0:005 (Reasonable Accommodations); 2 CCR 406:0. The CPW regulations in Chapters W:0 through W:15 generally apply to CPW’s wildlife programs. CPW relocated its amended accommodation regulations to Chapter W:16, 2 CCR 406:16, in this rulemaking because the chapter applies broadly to all of CPW’s parks and wildlife programs. CPW relocated its regulations to make it clear to the public that the ADA applies to all of CPW’s operations and to avoid confusion.
- B. The Director’s authority to issue variances - Prior to this rulemaking, the Director of the Division of Parks and Wildlife (Director) had “authority to grant variances from the regulations adopted by the Wildlife Commission [sic] ... for the sole purpose of providing reasonable accommodations to persons with a significant impairment of a major life function resulting in functional impairment under the Americans with Disabilities Act.” W-5:005:A. This regulation was outdated because it did not refer to the combined Parks and Wildlife Commission. This regulation was also problematic because it loosely paraphrased federal law. The amended regulation has been streamlined to simply state the Director has authority to issue variances as necessary to comply with federal and state disability laws.
- C. Bases for denial of applications seeking specific accommodations - Prior to this rulemaking, CPW regulation W:0:005:A:1 identified three scenarios where CPW would not be legally required to provide an applicant’s desired accommodation, loosely paraphrasing federal regulations. These standards have been removed because the paraphrasing was imprecise, and the federal standards already apply by operation of law.
- D. Standards of proof - Prior to this rulemaking, CPW regulation W:0:005:C required individuals seeking an accommodation permit to support their application with a statement from a healthcare professional opining on the severity of their disability and the anticipated effectiveness of their desired accommodation. This requirement has been removed to make CPW regulations more consistent with federal law. The amended rule enables CPW to require applicants to provide evidence in support of their applications in appropriate, limited circumstances. These changes are consistent with federal regulations implementing the amended ADA, which state that the question of whether someone is disabled “usually will not require scientific, medical, or statistical evidence.” 28 C.F.R. § 35, App. C. See also, 28 C.F.R. § 35.108 (individuals seeking an accommodation need not meet a “demanding standard” to prove they are disabled).

- E. Editorial changes - The amended rule has been edited to use plain language and make it easier to understand.

III. Specific statutory authority for the new and amended rules

§ 33-1-104, CRS (“The commission shall establish objectives within the state policy, ... which will enable the division to develop, manage, and maintain sound programs of hunting, fishing, trapping, and other wildlife-related outdoor recreational activities. Such objectives shall employ a multiple-use concept of management.”).

§ 33-10-106(3)(a), CRS (“The commission shall ... [r]elate the parks and outdoor recreation programs to the populations and economies of the regions to be served....”).

§ 33-9-102(2), CRS (“In addition to any other specific grant of rule-making authority, the commission may adopt or revise any rules ... that the commission deems necessary or convenient to effect the purposes of, and fulfill its duties under, this title.”).

FINAL REGULATIONS - CHAPTER W-0 - GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE V – VACANT ACCOMMODATIONS FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES~~#005 – REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS~~

- ~~A. The Director shall have the authority to grant variances from the regulations adopted by the Wildlife Commission, including but not limited to manner of take and access accommodations, for the sole purpose of providing reasonable accommodations to persons with a significant impairment of a major life function resulting in functional impairment under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Such accommodations may be provided if they are reasonably required to allow the person to participate in wildlife programs or access wildlife properties to participate in wildlife related recreation and do not:~~
- ~~1. Significantly alter the purpose of the Division property or program for which the accommodation is requested;~~
  - ~~2. Jeopardize the safety of the applicant or any other person; or~~
  - ~~3. Pose undue hardship for the Division~~
- ~~B. Application for such accommodations must be made on a form available from and submitted to the Division at least 30 days prior to the requested effective date.~~
- ~~C. Except when applying exclusively for the use of a power driven mobility device, the application shall include a statement from a licensed medical doctor, a certified physical therapist, a certified occupational therapist, or a certified recreational therapist containing:~~
- ~~1. A medical explanation as to whether or not the disability is a significant impairment that limits one or more daily life functions, and how those functions are affected.~~
  - ~~2. A narrative description of how the accommodation requested is reasonably required to allow the applicant to participate in the wildlife program or access the wildlife property in question.~~
- ~~D. Such applications will be reviewed on a case by case basis and additional documentation may be required if necessary to establish the applicant's disability or the reasonableness of the accommodation requested. If any accommodation is authorized, the applicant will be provided with a special permit listing the accommodation and any conditions of its use. In the case of properties and facilities designated exclusively for hunters with qualifying disabilities, this permit shall allow a permittee and attendant access to such properties and facilities.~~
- ~~1. When shooting from a motor vehicle is authorized, the permittee is authorized to discharge a firearm or release an arrow from a stationary motor vehicle only after all forward motion has ceased and the motor has been turned off or is incapable of forward motion. No shooting may be done from a public road.~~
- ~~E. Permits are free of charge, and valid for the time period designated on the permit. Except when applying exclusively for the use of a power driven mobility device, the temporary or permanent nature of the person's disability may be considered in establishing the time period for which the permit will be valid. Permits shall be presented for inspection upon request by an officer of the Division.~~
- ~~F. Hunters with permits must be accompanied by another person when necessary to ensure that the wildlife taken is retrieved and properly prepared for human consumption. Such person may dispatch wounded wildlife when so authorized as a condition of the permit.~~
- ~~G. Persons provided with any accommodation under this regulation shall comply with all other applicable laws and regulations. Permits allow variances only from regulations specifically addressed and only in the manner and under the circumstances set forth therein.~~

~~H. A service animal is defined as any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability. Other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained, are not service animals for the purposes of this definition. The work or tasks performed by a service animal must be directly related to the handler's disability. The crime deterrent effects of an animal's presence and the provisions of emotional support, well-being, comfort, or companionship do not constitute work or tasks for the purposes of this definition.~~

ARTICLE XI - SPECIAL RESTRICTIONS

- A. Most restrictive Federal or State law - In all cases of licensing, taking, possession, importation, exportation, release, marking and sale of any wildlife, irrespective of current status (threatened, endangered, game or nongame), the most restrictive state or federal regulation shall apply by species.

Such tag must be attached to the carcass immediately prior to and during transportation in any vehicle or while in camp or at a residence or other place of storage. Such tag, when so dated, signed and attached to the species lawfully taken or killed and lawfully in possession, authorizes the possession, use, storage, and transportation of the carcass, or any part thereof.
  - 3. If the carcass tag and/or license are inadvertently or accidentally detached, lost or destroyed, the licensee must obtain a duplicate carcass tag and/or license before he can lawfully hunt with such license. The duplicate carcass tag may be obtained upon furnishing satisfactory proof as to the inadvertent or accidental nature of detachment, loss, or destruction to the Division.
- D. Waste of Wildlife

Except for furbearers, Terrestrial Invasive Species listed in Commission Regulation #002(M)(1), wildlife listed in Commission Regulation #300(D)(3), or any wildlife taken under the authority of §33-6-107(9), C.R.S., all edible portions of game wildlife taken under the authority of a license shall be properly prepared to provide for human consumption. For the purpose of this restriction edible portions shall not include internal organs.
  - 2. Any consumption or spoilage of game wildlife by a falconry raptor upon the raptor's capture of the game wildlife shall not be considered waste of wildlife, provided the falconer makes a reasonable and timely attempt to retrieve the game wildlife and prepare some remaining edible portion for human consumption.
- E. Closures

Basis and Purpose:

Modifying the Game Management Unit boundaries for 123, 124, 125, 128, 129, and 135.

GMU 129 will be expanded to include the river corridor from Pueblo to Highway 71. This realignment will allow hunters to hunt both sides of public and private properties that straddle the Arkansas River that they have not been allowed to do previously. It will also improve management and inventory actions for the deer herds in this area. The new boundary will split areas predominated by white-tailed deer from areas predominated by mule deer, therefore, increasing CPW's ability for species-specific management of white-tailed deer and mule deer. The boundary change will also allow elk management to be consistent on both sides of the Arkansas River corridor.

Modifying the Game Management Unit boundaries for 008 and 191.

The boundary between GMUs 008 and 191 will be realigned to simplify the boundary and allow for greater hunting opportunities in GMU 191. The boundary between the two units was adopted many years ago in response to elk movements that no longer apply and was confusing to hunters. The boundary realignment should provide clearer boundaries between the two units while also mitigating hunter crowding in GMU 008 by redistributing some hunters into GMU 191.

Modifying the hunting closure on Mount Evans

By moving the hunting closure along Colo 5 from a 1/2 (one-half) mile closure to a 1/4 (one-quarter) mile closure when the road is open to motorized traffic will expand the hunting opportunity in the area. This will open up approximately a one-mile wide by a 15-mile long section of wildlife habitat for hunting. The 1/4 (one-quarter) mile closure is also the distance that is used in other parts of the state to reduce conflicts between general recreational users, motorists, and hunters. The 1/2 (one-half) mile closure will remain in effect for ptarmigan at all times as recommended by researchers after years of study of ptarmigan in this area.

The Colorado Parks and Wildlife Commission (Commission or CPW) issues this statement of basis and purpose pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, § 24-4-103(4)(c), CRS. This statement relates to new and amended rules adopted by the Commission on January 17, 2023, regarding accommodations for persons with disabilities. CPW repealed W-0:005 in its entirety and recodified amended accommodation regulations in W-16:1680.

Federal and state law prohibit state and local governments from unlawfully discriminating on the basis of disability in their services, programs, and activities. See 42 USC § 12132 (Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)); § 24-34-801, CRS (Colorado statute prohibiting such discrimination). Colorado statutes and regulations related to accommodations for persons with disabilities are intended to be "substantially equivalent to federal law." 3 CCR § 708-1:60.1. This means that Colorado law provides substantive rights, procedures, and remedies comparable to federal law. CPW updated its regulations in this rulemaking to be more consistent with developments in the law.

I. Background and the Amended ADA

In 1990, the federal ADA was signed into law. The US Supreme Court subsequently issued rulings narrowly construing the ADA, making it more difficult for people to obtain protection under the law. In 2008, congress amended the ADA to reverse these narrow rulings and to make it easier for people to obtain protection. In 2010, the Department of Justice (DOJ) issued new regulations implementing the amended ADA, codified at 28 C.F.R. § 35.

Federal disability statutes and regulations apply to CPW regardless of whether CPW has similar regulations. For this reason, it is unnecessary and potentially confusing for CPW to have lengthy regulations attempting to paraphrase federal law. This statement explains the regulatory changes CPW made in this rulemaking and its reasons for doing so.

II. Purposes of the amended regulations

- A. Relocation of CPW's disability related regulations – Prior to this rulemaking, CPW's disability related regulations were codified in Chapter W:0:005 (Reasonable Accommodations); 2 CCR 406:0. The CPW regulations in Chapters W:0 through W:15 generally apply to CPW's wildlife programs. CPW relocated its amended accommodation regulations to Chapter W:16, 2 CCR 406:16, in this rulemaking because the chapter applies broadly to all of CPW's parks and wildlife programs. CPW relocated its regulations to make it clear to the public that the ADA applies to all of CPW's operations and to avoid confusion.
- B. The Director's authority to issue variances – Prior to this rulemaking, the Director of the Division of Parks and Wildlife (Director) had "authority to grant variances from the regulations adopted by the Wildlife Commission [sic] ... for the sole purpose of providing reasonable accommodations to persons with a significant impairment of a major life function resulting in functional impairment under the Americans with Disabilities Act." W-5:005:A. This regulation was outdated because it did not refer to the combined Parks and Wildlife Commission. This regulation was also problematic because it loosely paraphrased federal law. The amended regulation has been streamlined to simply state the Director has authority to issue variances as necessary to comply with federal and state disability laws.
- C. Bases for denial of applications seeking specific accommodations – Prior to this rulemaking, CPW regulation W:0:005:A:1 identified three scenarios where CPW would not be legally required to provide an applicant's desired accommodation, loosely paraphrasing federal regulations. These standards have been removed because the paraphrasing was imprecise, and the federal standards already apply by operation of law.
- D. Standards of proof – Prior to this rulemaking, CPW regulation W:0:005:C required individuals seeking an accommodation permit to support their application with a statement from a healthcare professional opining on the severity of their disability and the anticipated effectiveness of their desired accommodation. This requirement has been removed to make CPW regulations more consistent with federal law. The amended rule enables CPW to require applicants to provide evidence in support of their applications in appropriate, limited circumstances. These changes are consistent with federal regulations implementing the amended ADA, which state that the question of whether someone is disabled "usually will not require scientific, medical, or statistical evidence." 28 C.F.R. § 35, App. C. See also, 28 C.F.R. § 35.108 (individuals seeking an accommodation need not meet a "demanding standard" to prove they are disabled).
- E. Editorial changes – The amended rule has been edited to use plain language and make it easier to understand.

III. Specific statutory authority for the new and amended rules

§ 33-1-104, CRS ("The commission shall establish objectives within the state policy, ... which will enable the division to develop, manage, and maintain sound programs of hunting, fishing, trapping, and other wildlife-related outdoor recreational activities. Such objectives shall employ a multiple-use concept of management.").

§ 33-10-106(3)(a), CRS ("The commission shall ... [r]elate the parks and outdoor recreation programs to the populations and economies of the regions to be served....").

§ 33-9-102(2), CRS ("In addition to any other specific grant of rule-making authority, the commission may adopt or revise any rules ... that the commission deems necessary or convenient to effect the purposes of, and fulfill its duties under, this title.").

The statements of basis and purpose for these regulations can be obtained from the Colorado Division of Parks and Wildlife, Office of the Regulations Manager by emailing dnr\_cpw\_planning@state.co.us or by visiting the Division of Parks and Wildlife headquarters at 6060 Broadway, Denver, CO, 80216.

- § 33-9-102, C.R.S.

EFFECTIVE DATE – THE REGULATIONS HEREIN SHALL BECOME EFFECTIVE March 2, 2023, AND SHALL REMAIN IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT UNTIL REPEALED, AMENDED OR SUPERSEDED.

FINAL REGULATIONS - CHAPTER W-16 - PARKS AND WILDLIFE PROCEDURAL RULES

ARTICLE V - Reasonable Accommodations for Persons with Disabilities

#1680 – Reasonable Accommodations

- A. The Director shall have the authority to grant variances from the regulations adopted by the Parks and Wildlife Commission, including but not limited to manner of take and access accommodations, for the sole purpose of providing reasonable accommodations to persons with disabilities.
- B. Application for such accommodations must be made on a form available from and submitted to the Division at least 30 days prior to the requested effective date.
- C. Such applications will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and supporting documentation may be required. If an accommodation is authorized, the applicant will be provided with a special permit listing the accommodation and any conditions of its use.
  - 1. When shooting from a motor vehicle is authorized, the permittee is authorized to discharge a firearm or release an arrow from a stationary motor vehicle only after all forward motion has ceased and the motor has been turned off or is incapable of forward motion. No shooting may be done from a public road.
- D. Permits are free of charge, and valid for the time period designated on the permit. Permits shall be presented for inspection upon request by an officer of the Division.
- E. Hunters with permits must be accompanied by another person when necessary to ensure that the wildlife taken is retrieved and properly prepared for human consumption. Such person may dispatch wounded wildlife when so authorized as a condition of the permit.
- F. Persons provided with any accommodation under this regulation shall comply with all other applicable laws and regulations. Permits allow variances only from regulations specifically addressed and only in the manner and under the circumstances set forth therein.
- G. A service animal is defined as any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability. Other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained, are not service animals for the purposes of this definition. The work or tasks performed by a service animal must be directly related to the handler's disability. The crime deterrent effects of an animal's presence and the provisions of emotional support, well-being, comfort, or companionship do not constitute work or tasks for the purposes of this definition.

Basis and Purpose:

The Colorado Parks and Wildlife Commission (Commission or CPW) issues this statement of basis and purpose pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, § 24-4-103(4)(c), CRS. This statement relates to new and amended rules adopted by the Commission on January 17, 2023, regarding accommodations for persons with disabilities. CPW repealed W-0:005 in its entirety and recodified amended accommodation regulations in W-16:1680.

Federal and state law prohibit state and local governments from unlawfully discriminating on the basis of disability in their services, programs, and activities. See 42 USC § 12132 (Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)); § 24-34-801, CRS (Colorado statute prohibiting such discrimination). Colorado statutes and regulations related to accommodations for persons with disabilities are intended to be “substantially equivalent to federal law.” 3 CCR § 708-1:60.1. This means that Colorado law provides substantive rights, procedures, and remedies comparable to federal law. CPW updated its regulations in this rulemaking to be more consistent with developments in the law.

I. Background and the Amended ADA

In 1990, the federal ADA was signed into law. The US Supreme Court subsequently issued rulings narrowly construing the ADA, making it more difficult for people to obtain protection under the law. In 2008, congress amended the ADA to reverse these narrow rulings and to make it easier for people to obtain protection. In 2010, the Department of Justice (DOJ) issued new regulations implementing the amended ADA, codified at 28 C.F.R. § 35.

Federal disability statutes and regulations apply to CPW regardless of whether CPW has similar regulations. For this reason, it is unnecessary and potentially confusing for CPW to have lengthy regulations attempting to paraphrase federal law. This statement explains the regulatory changes CPW made in this rulemaking and its reasons for doing so.

II. Purposes of the amended regulations

- A. Relocation of CPW’s disability related regulations – Prior to this rulemaking, CPW’s disability related regulations were codified in Chapter W:0:005 (Reasonable Accommodations); 2 CCR 406:0. The CPW regulations in Chapters W:0 through W:15 generally apply to CPW’s wildlife programs. CPW relocated its amended accommodation regulations to Chapter W:16, 2 CCR 406:16, in this rulemaking because the chapter applies broadly to all of CPW’s parks and wildlife programs.

CPW relocated its regulations to make it clear to the public that the ADA applies to all of CPW's operations and to avoid confusion.

- B. The Director's authority to issue variances – Prior to this rulemaking, the Director of the Division of Parks and Wildlife (Director) had “authority to grant variances from the regulations adopted by the Wildlife Commission [sic] ... for the sole purpose of providing reasonable accommodations to persons with a significant impairment of a major life function resulting in functional impairment under the Americans with Disabilities Act.” W-5:005:A. This regulation was outdated because it did not refer to the combined Parks and Wildlife Commission. This regulation was also problematic because it loosely paraphrased federal law. The amended regulation has been streamlined to simply state the Director has authority to issue variances as necessary to comply with federal and state disability laws.
- C. Bases for denial of applications seeking specific accommodations – Prior to this rulemaking, CPW regulation W:0:005:A:1 identified three scenarios where CPW would not be legally required to provide an applicant's desired accommodation, loosely paraphrasing federal regulations. These standards have been removed because the paraphrasing was imprecise, and the federal standards already apply by operation of law.
- D. Standards of proof – Prior to this rulemaking, CPW regulation W:0:005:C required individuals seeking an accommodation permit to support their application with a statement from a healthcare professional opining on the severity of their disability and the anticipated effectiveness of their desired accommodation. This requirement has been removed to make CPW regulations more consistent with federal law. The amended rule enables CPW to require applicants to provide evidence in support of their applications in appropriate, limited circumstances. These changes are consistent with federal regulations implementing the amended ADA, which state that the question of whether someone is disabled “usually will not require scientific, medical, or statistical evidence.” 28 C.F.R. § 35, App. C. See also, 28 C.F.R. § 35.108 (individuals seeking an accommodation need not meet a “demanding standard” to prove they are disabled).
- E. Editorial changes – The amended rule has been edited to use plain language and make it easier to understand.

III. Specific statutory authority for the new and amended rules
