

Southeast Region Pronghorn Herd Management Plans

Southeast Terrestrial

- Bryan Lamont – Salida
- Ashlynn Rhodes – Lamar
- Jonathan Reitz – Lamar
- Ed Schmal – Pueblo
- Allen Vitt – Pueblo
- Tyrel Woodward – Colorado Springs

Pronghorn Biology

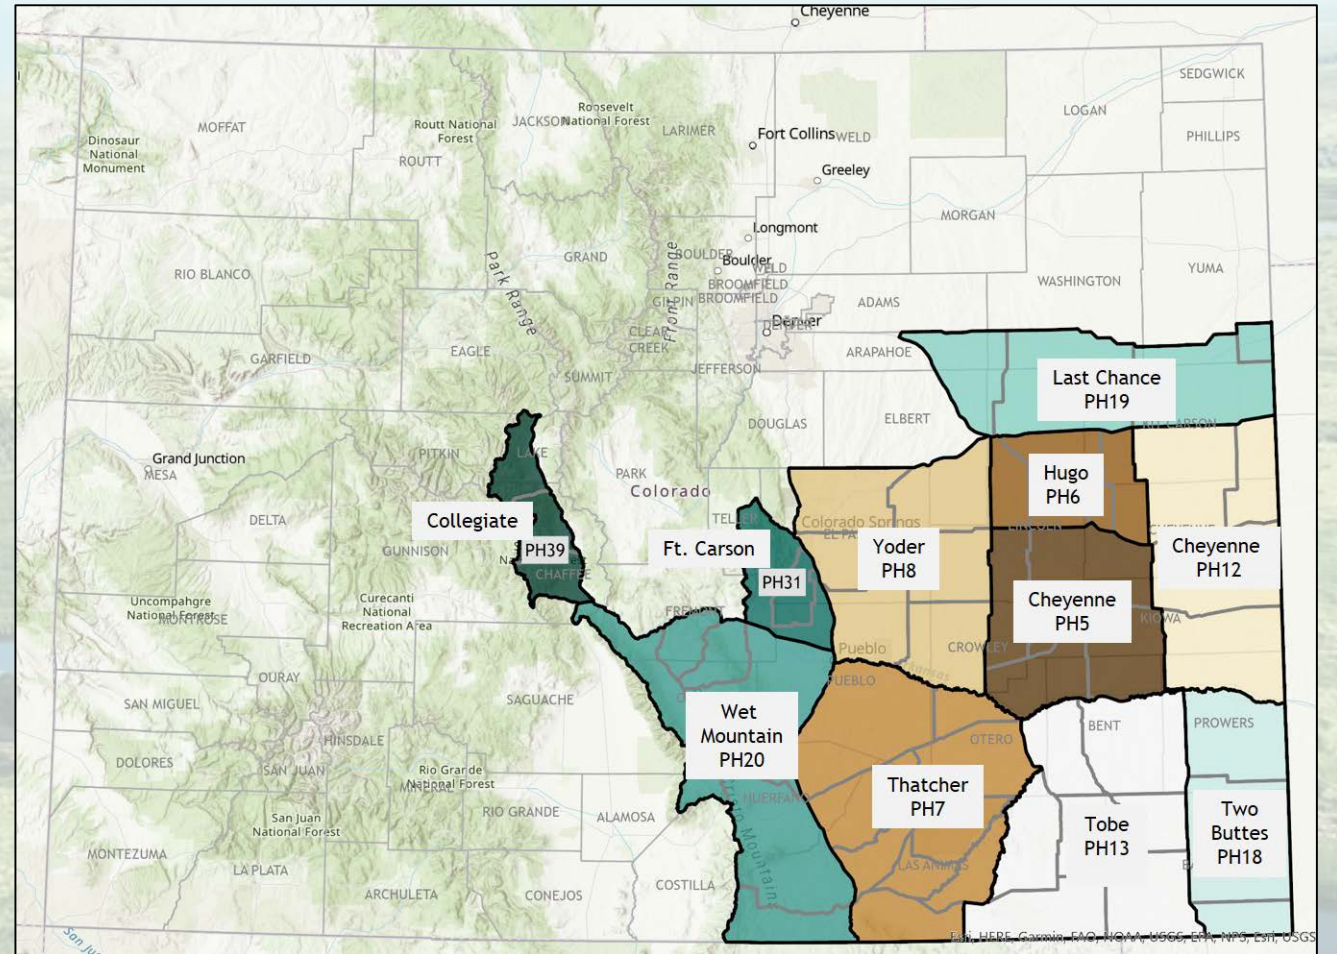

- Family Antilocapridae
- Fastest land mammal in N. America
- Black horn sheath
 - Shed annually
- Nine-month gestation
 - Twins = 15-20% of mom's body weight

Background

Southeast Pronghorn Herds

- 31,000 pronghorn
 - ~40% of statewide population
- 1.1 million people
- 31,000 mi²
 - 80% overall pronghorn range
- Landownership
 - 81% private
 - 19% federal & state

Management Considerations

Habitat Loss

Movement Patterns & Connectivity

- Development
 - Wind & solar energy
 - Residential
- Precipitation
- Private land

LIVE LIFE
OUTSIDE

Stakeholder Input

Landowners

- Mail Survey
 - Postage paid return envelope
- Balance
 - Pronghorn numbers & hunter numbers

Hunters

- Surveys
 - Mail survey or harvest survey
- Satisfaction
 - Total pronghorn, buck numbers & overall experience

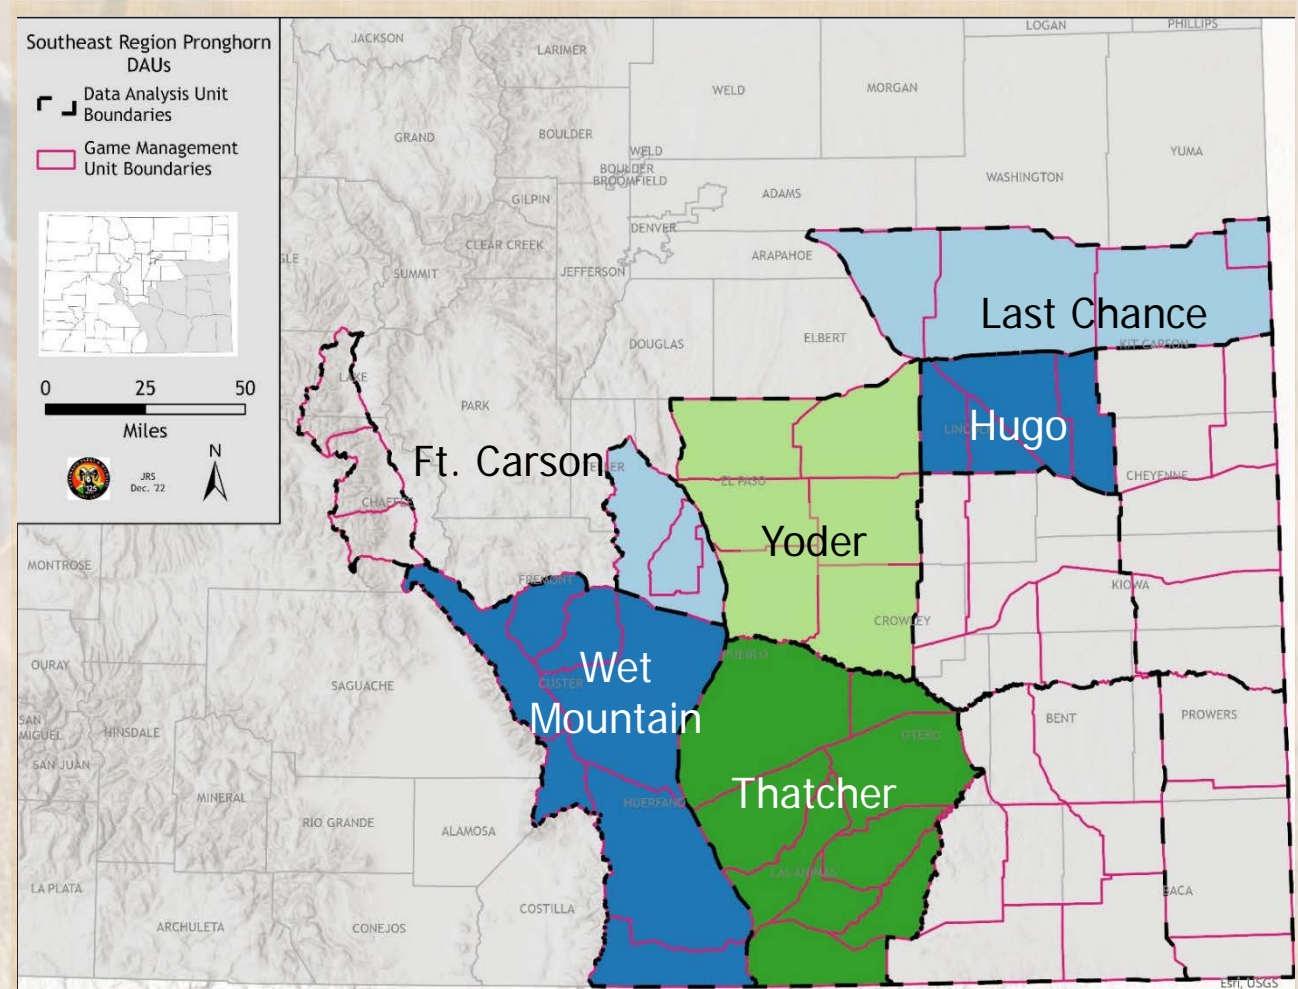

30-day Comment Period
January-February 2023

SE Pronghorn Herd Management Plans

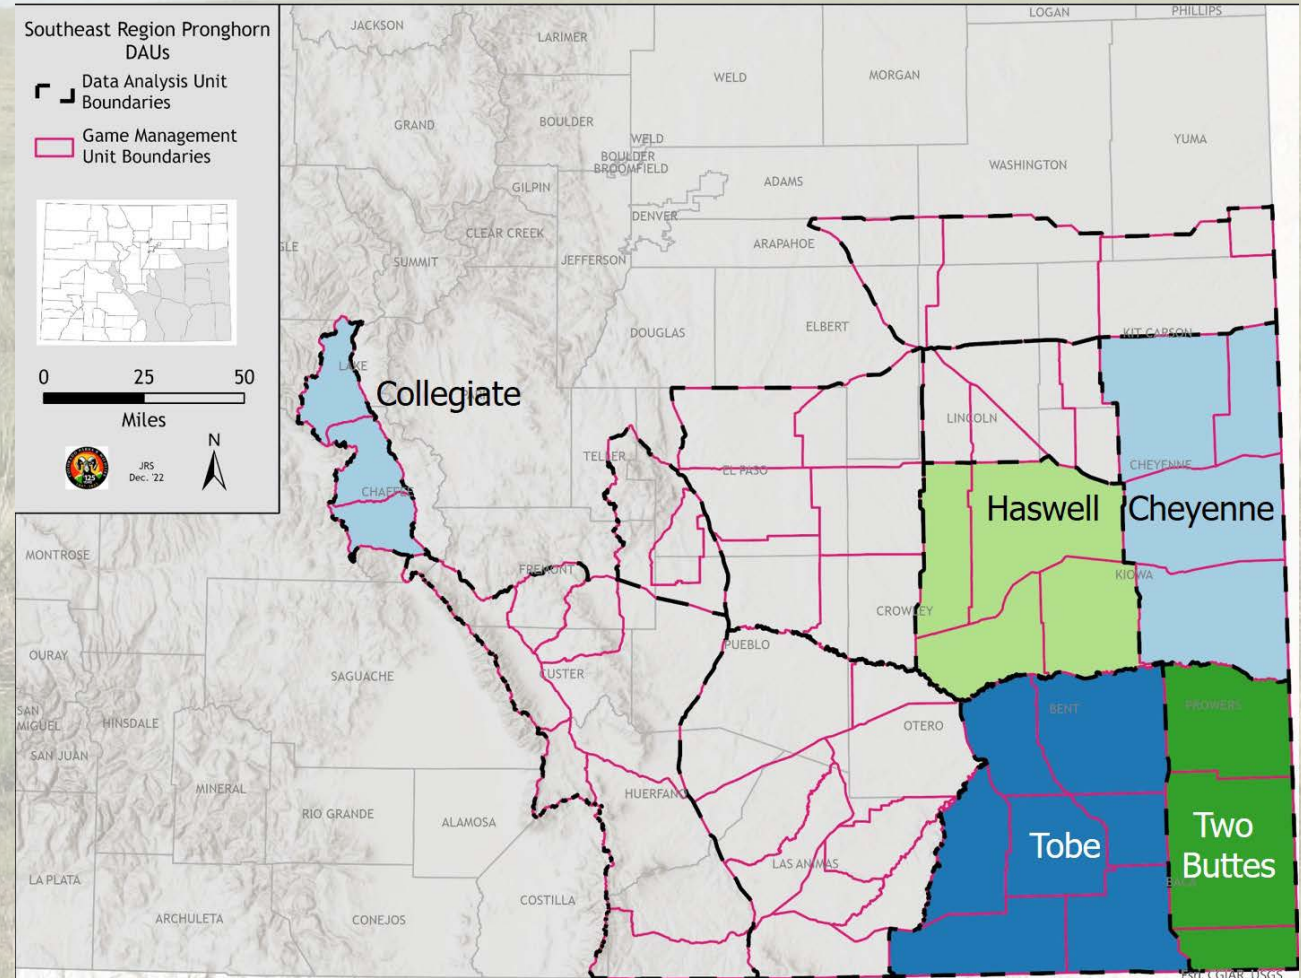

Full Revisions

- Hugo PH6
- Thatcher PH7
- Yoder PH8
- Last Chance PH19
- Wet Mountain PH20
- Ft. Carson PH31

SE Pronghorn Herd Management Plans Extensions

- Haswell PH5
- Cheyenne PH12
- Tobe PH13
- Two Buttes PH18
- Collegiate PH39

Julie R. Stiver
Senior Wildlife Biologist

Management Considerations

LIVE LIFE
OUTSIDE

Acknowledgments

Landowners & Hunters

LIVE LIFE
OUTSIDE

Acknowledgments

CPW

- Terrestrial Section
- SE Region
 - Areas 11, 12, 13 & 14
- Financial Services
- Research, Policy & Planning
- Information & Education

