RE: Habitat Partnership Program Annual Report - FY 2018

As required by statute, attached please find the FY 2018 (July 1, 2017 - June 30, 2018) report for the Habitat Partnership Program (HPP). HPP is authorized by the state legislature and the Colorado Parks and Wildlife Commission to "reduce wildlife conflicts, particularly those associated with forage and fence issues, and to assist the Division of Parks and Wildlife in meeting game management objectives through duties as deemed appropriate by the Director." HPP revenue in FY18 was $2,518,832.01, of which $2,488,452 was derived from 5% of big game (deer, elk, pronghorn, moose) license revenues from HPP areas, as provided for in 33-1-112 8 e 1 CRS.

In FY 2018, 19 local HPP committees and the State Council, made up of nearly 150 volunteers representing livestock growers, sportsmen, federal land management agencies and CPW staff met throughout the year across much of Colorado to cooperatively discuss and, operating under CPW Commission approved plans, worked towards reducing conflicts between big game and agricultural operators and assisting CPW to meet game management objectives.

One of the founding principles for HPP was partnerships and this remains an integral part of the program today. The development of successful partnerships has allowed HPP to work with and establish relationships with many different people and agencies; it has allowed everyone to accomplish more at a lower cost than would have been possible if acting independently; we have accomplished projects that might not have been possible to do without them and our partnerships have created opportunities for future work together. In FY 2018, HPP expended $3,060,032.69 and leveraged cash contributions of $4,361,221.55, in kind services valued at $3,123,975.20 and 11,156 hours of labor from our partners in efforts to reduce conflicts and meet game management objectives.

Since its inception, HPP has focused on the resolution of agricultural/big game conflicts and this continues to be our primary purpose. The commitment made to agriculture and landowners in 1990 remains strong and we remain focused on providing a responsive and effective way to resolve issues associated with deer, elk, moose and pronghorn wherever those problems or solutions may exist. During the past 28 years, HPP and our partners have resolved many of those conflicts or have put a process in place to handle them should they occur.

Current HPP statutes also provide for HPP to assist CPW in achieving game management objectives and, as with conflicts, the focus remains on deer, elk, pronghorn and moose objectives. Local HPP committees and the State Council are implementing this part of HPP while ensuring conflict resolution remains a high program priority for landowner concerns.

CPW develops game management objectives (herd size and sex ratio) for big game herds in Colorado that are a blend of social, political and biological constraints. The ability to achieve these objectives is crucial to private landowners and public land managers, sportsmen and their desire to recreate, the financial stability of CPW and the economic benefits that wildlife and hunting bring to many local economies and businesses throughout the state. It is appropriate for HPP to be involved in assisting CPW on these issues that have far ranging implications. HPP involvement consists of critical habitat improvement projects and research projects designed to produce knowledge for use in big game herd management.

An explanation about HPP administrative costs is in order since they affect the reporting information contained in the "ADM" category on the accompanying pages. In 33-1-112 8 e III CRS, HPP retains the unexpended fund balance each year provided that the fund balance is no more than the 5% transfer received on the prior July 1. In the situation when the HPP fund has more than the 5% in it on June 30, the overage is reverted back to the wildlife cash fund. In this specific case, the amount reverted is for FY17 but the actual reversion didn't occur until FY18 and so it must be accounted for as a FY18 expense. It's likely the same scenario will be repeated again in FY19 but HPP continues to work on increasing the number and scope of projects, thus decreasing the amount reverted each year.

At its inception in 1990, HPP funding was entirely used for operating costs at the local committee and state council levels. Internal administrative costs were borne by the agency. However, starting in 2006, these administrative costs have gradually been shifted to HPP. In 2016, with the agreement of the State Council, HPP began paying for the personal services costs of the local committee administrative assistants. In FY18, in addition to these earlier expenses, all personal services costs incurred by CPW employees who charged time to HPP was paid for by HPP. While this accounting change increases needed flexibility within CPW's wildlife cash account, HPP is assured that this money would become immediately available from CPW if it were needed by HPP at a later date for projects, emergencies or opportunities that could not be funded with existing HPP funds at the time.

There is much more detailed information available about the HPP program and projects undertaken by the local committees. Interested parties are encouraged to contact a local CPW office or you may visit the HPP website, <http://cpw.state.co.us/HPP> for more program and project information.

If you have any specific questions or would like additional program information, please contact Pat Tucker, HPP Coordinator, at (970) 255-6188 or via email at pat.tucker@state.co.us.
