

Alex Logemann Bio

Alex Logemann is the Director of State + Local Policy at PeopleForBikes, where he runs campaigns at the state, county, and municipal levels. He also manages the legislative monitoring program for PeopleForBikes, which tracks pending bicycle-related laws and regulations in all 50 states. Alex has worked extensively on domestic e-bike policy, where he has helped draft and pass bills in several legislatures. Prior to joining PeopleForBikes, Alex worked at an international law firm where he counseled clients on natural resource and product liability matters.