

Christian Giles

Christian Giles is a senior at DCIS Montbello High School and has participated in ELK for years. During the school year you can always find Christian at ELK's Leadership Corps meetings and service projects. His positive attitude and dedication to ELK make him an exceptional leader among his peers. Last summer he worked with ELK as an Urban Ranger, teaching environmental education programs to Denver Metro Youth. He is also the recipient of ELK's 2018 Tim Crisman Memorial Scholarship, for his continued support in Elk programs, community engagement and exhibited leadership.
