

Howard Horton, Colorado Parks and Wildlife, Angling Outreach Coordinator

Howard Horton is the Angling Outreach Coordinator for Colorado Parks & Wildlife. He does multiple types of fishing clinics throughout the year and is the point of contact for national fishing organizations as well as fishing organizations in the state. He was a game warden in the Conifer area before this assignment. Howard is an avid hunter and angler.