

Joseph Ehrenberger, Adaptation Environmental Services (EAS)

Joseph's career as an ecologist includes assisting with husbandry and breeding of rare species in the U.S., Dominican Republic, and Grand Cayman. His field experiences concentrated on general wildlife and habitat assessments, as well as special-status species surveys. Joseph and the AES team designed the What's the buzz? Research project for Jeffco Open Space.