

Kalem Lenard, BLM

Kalem Lenard is the Associate Field Manager for the BLM's Royal Gorge Field Office in Canon City, Colorado where he also served as the lead Outdoor Recreation Planner from 2010 to 2016. Prior to that he lived in Ely, Nevada where he started a non-profit trail organization leading to a career with the BLM. He serves as an instructor for the BLM's Outdoor Recreation Planning course and has extensive experience with trail management and collaborating with partners on land management solutions. He keeps busy in his spare time exploring and adventuring on public lands with his wife and two kids, ages 6 and 9.