

Meredith Marshall, Health and Wellness Champion and Senior Regional Economic Development Manager, Office of Economic Development and International Trade

Meridith Marshall is the Health and Wellness Champion and Senior Regional Manager for the Office of Economic Development & International Trade. In this position, she is responsible for implementing the strategic action plan to advance Colorado's Health & Wellness industry and a variety of initiatives supporting rural Colorado, including Blueprint 2.0. In 2017, Meridith was recognized by the International Economic Development Council as 40 Under 40 recipient. Her previous work included overseeing multi-million dollar disaster recovery business programs in response to Superstorm Sandy and the Iowa floods of 2008. In 2009, she graduated from Drake University with a minor in neuroscience, a bachelor of science in business administration with a major in economics and a master of business administration.