

Centennial Program

LIVE LIFE OUTSIDE

Products that are a part of the Centennial Program are offered at a discounted cost to qualified Colorado residents who meet certain income eligibility guidelines. To qualify, a resident must show a Colorado photo identification card, provide income verification as listed below, and be 64 years of age or older for senior products. If using the federal taxable income for eligibility, it must be at or below the threshold amount based on number of household members shown in the chart below.

2023 Guidelines for 48 Contiguous States & DC
of Household Members	Income (Line 15 on tax forms)
1	$14,580
2	$19,720
3	$24,860
4	$30,000
5	$35,140
6	$40,280
7	$45,420
8	$50,560
For households with more than 8 persons, add $5,140 for each additional person.

To qualify, please provide a photocopy of one of the following documents (or filed for the previous tax year):

- _____ 2022 U.S. federal income tax form 1040
- _____ 2022 U.S. federal income tax form 1040-SR
- _____ Current eligibility letter or card for any of the following programs: SNAP, TANF, LEAP, Health First Colorado (Medicaid), FDPIR or WIC
- _____ Affidavit*

*If your income is at a level such that you were not required to file a federal income tax return within the last calendar year, you must sign the affidavit provided on the back of this application as proof to that effect under penalty of perjury.
