Updates

Legal hunting keeps Colorado healthy.

(And legal fishing does, too.)

Adventurous Environmentalist

- Are indifferent towards hunting
- Have certain moral issues with hunting specifically around hunting for sport
- Struggle to understand how hunting contributes to maintaining a healthy ecosystem in Colorado
- Do not believe restrictions on hunting would impact them personally.

The Platform That Moved The Needle with Our Audience:

A Day in the Life of a Wildlife Biologist

Learnings from Testing

- Wildlife Biologists are trustworthy messengers
- Education about trophy hunting is a key lead message
- Communicates the personal impacts for all residents

A Day in the Life of a Wildlife Biologist

Colorado Parks and Wildlife biologists and officers are the experts. They understand more about how regulated hunting helps wildlife and the outdoor environment we love more than anyone. So in this campaign we will show the impacts they see everyday. This will take different forms depending on the media placement and the depth of message we are able to deliver. Sometimes the biologists will speak directly to us.

Sometimes we see will the same impacts they do.

Phase 1

- Lead with education on rules/trophy hunting
- AEs need to hear this messaging first to be open to benefits messaging
- Support with benefits of regulated hunting

Phase 2

• Expanded on benefits of regulated hunting

Get Your Wildlife Bag and Let's Go Wild!

Join the Colorado Wildlife Council at the Rockies game on Sunday, Sept. 17, to get your complimentary wildlife bag. The Wildlife Council is a proud partner of both the Rockies and wildlife conservation across the state.

Conservation work in Colorado is a game-changer. More than 960 wildlife species benefit from programs that are funded primarily with hunting and fishing license fees. These programs help keep Colorado wild and beautiful and help protect endangered species and conserve vital habitats. One of the species that has benefited most is the Shiras moose, as seen on the bag, which today boasts one of the fastest growing populations in the lower 48 states.

Together, hunting and fishing bring over s3.25 billion to the state's economy each year and support more than 25,000 jobs across the state. Now that's a home-field advantage. And, while you're at Coors Field, don't miss your chance to see the stunning wildlife mural located at section 112 near gate B. Scan the QR code on the mural to activate the AR effect and bring the mural to life. See you at the game!

Honoring Vice Chair Tony Bohrer

As he moves on from his role with the council, the CWC would like to honor Tony Bohrer for eight years of excellent work as a member of the council and two years served as vice chair. When Tony joined some years ago, he didn't quite know what the future had in store for him. Over the years, his passion and expertise grew — and so did the respect and admiration of all those who served with him. Everyone who knows him respects his steadfast commitment to the work of the council, with one member saying, "Thank you, Tony, for your continued engagement and the sharing of your stories. We appreciate your support and dedication." Regarding the difficult task of replacing Tony, another fellow council member stated, "That person's going to have big shoes to fill just because of the way that you've been able to handle things on your end and representing sportspeople, counties, and the council as a whole." Thank you, Tony, for all you've done!

CWC Day with the Colorado Rockies

CWC Day at Coors Field on Sept. 17 was a home run. The Colorado Wildlife Council partnered with the Colorado Rockies to celebrate the upcoming National Hunting and Fishing Day, which was Sept. 23. The big day at the ballpark started with Don Anderson throwing out the first pitch. During the game, CWC gave away 15,000 branded tote bags featuring beautiful artwork of the Shiras moose. Over 27,000 attendees were at the game, all of whom were able to enjoy the fabulous interactive moose mural and learn more about the Colorado Wildlife Council. Both the tote bag and the mural feature interactive elements to help teach viewers about the CWC's mission and how hunting benefits everyone in Colorado. Go Rockiesl

Catching Up with the Council: Kelly Weyand

For Kelly and the great outdoors in Colorado, you could call it true love. His passion for the outdoors began at birth — and it never stopped. Growing up on a farm near Cortez, it was always hard to keep him indoors. During those years, Kelly had his first enchanting encounters with wildlife, including smallgame hunting and fishing. Colorado's beautiful wilds just feel like home to him. His feelings haven't changed in the 35 years that followed, except he now focuses on hunting big game, a pursuit that has taken him to other countries. Kelly particularly enjoys spending time outdoors with his wife Stacey and their two boys. Together, they hunt to collect meat and carefully freeze it to use it all year long. It's part of their efforts to educate their boys and others on the importance of conservation in hunting. Today, he belongs to several conservation groups and serves as a 4H Shooting Sports superintendent and an archery coach. Kelly's efforts help keep the council and its mission on target.

Partnership and Event Updates

The Colorado Wildlife Council is excited to announce three new partnerships with Tightline Outdoors, Uncharted Outdoorswomen and the American Conservation Coalition. CWC and its partners support each other's missions to educate the public about the importance of conservation and outdoor recreation in Colorado. That's a key message for another one of the CWC's longtime partners, Care For Colorado, which promotes Leave No Trace principles and keeping wildlife wild.

Want to learn more about conservation organizations? The CWC is hosting a panel featuring Nate Zelinksy of Tightline Outdoors and Eric Crider, founder of Uncharted Outdoorswomen, on Oct. 21 from 3-5 p.m. at Conifer Ranch. Come on out for food, drinks and conversation. Join the discussion and talk with them about their passion for conservation and the diverse range of conservation work in Colorado. Don't miss out!

Glossary of Terms

animated display ad: digital creative that has motion awareness: top-of-funnel marketing to drive brand awareness and educate your target audience

benchmark: a single metric that averages the performance of all brands in an industry, used to gauge performance of media efforts bumper ad: six-second videos that play before a user's selected video content. These add frequency to a larger Campaign.

call to action (CTA): the instruction in the creative to take some action; for example: "Book Now," "Learn More" or "Sign Up."

connected TV (CTV): TV connected to the internet that can stream videos through apps. CTV allows full-length video assets to be distributed on a big screen to our audiences (like broadcast) with the added benefit of precise targeting (like digital).

consideration: engaging users who have interacted with your brand and driving toward a call to action. cost per acquisition (CPA): measures the total costs to acquire a desired campaign objective for your business; ex., enrollment in Way to Quit services cost per click (CPC): your cost for each click your ad receives. Keep in mind that a click is not unique to the person taking action. If one person clicks on your ad three times, you will be charged for three clicks.

cost per thousand impressions (CPM): this is the most common method for web pricing. You will be charged for every 1,000 times your ad loads to a page. Keep in mind that a CPM is not a unique view.

click-through rate (CTR): the number of clicks your ad receives divided by the number of times your ad has been shown. The CTR percentage allows you to measure the engagement with your ad. The higher the percentage, the higher the engagement.

display tactics: made up of text-based, image or video advertisements that encourage the user to click through to a landing page and take action (e.g., call the quit line)

designated market area (DMA): a geographic location representing a county, state or country you choose to Target demand side platform (DSP): a technology that allows advertisers to purchase display ad inventory across real-time bidding (RTB) networks like Google. Think of it this way: This is your campaign, your bid, your target audience; the DSP is just placing the ad buys on your behalf based on the criteria you've identified.

engagement: metric used to gauge user interaction with creative frequency: average number of times individuals are exposed to the ad.

interactive advertising bureau (IAB): a business organization that sets the industry standard for digital advertising including ad specifications. Consider these specifications the standard and best practice for anything digital-advertising related.

impressions: the number of people exposed to an ad, without regard to duplication

Glossary of Terms

influencer marketing: partnering with a prominent social personality ("influencer") to create content and posts for a brand. Compensation is either paid or in trade for products/services, or a combination of both.

key performance indicator (KPI): key metric(s) you plan to measure to determine the success of a campaign

MoM, YoY, PoP: timeline acronyms for: month over month, year over year, period over period native ads: an ad that looks to be part of the host site, often presented as an article. These must be clearly labeled as sponsored or promoted.

opt-in: when a user chooses to receive messaging from a company or advertiser organic social: a brand's social presence on owned channels, such as the Way to Quit Facebook page

outstream: video/display ad format that fits within natural breaks of website article content over the top (OTT): content delivered over the internet without the involvement of a cable or satellite operator. Examples of OTT devices include Roku, AppleTV, Chromecast, game consoles, connected TVs. OTT services/apps include Hulu, Netflix, Amazon Prime, HBO Max, Discovery+, Peacock, etc.

paid social: paid advertising opportunities within social media networks paid traffic vs. organic traffic: paid traffic is website traffic from paid media sources. Organic traffic is those visitors to your website who manually type in the URL. Note that much of the organic traffic is a result of offline paid media efforts promoting WayToQuit.org.

pre-roll: 15- or 30-second video ad that plays before the user's selected video content; can be skippable or non-skippable.

programmatic: programmatic media buying uses data insights and algorithms to serve ads to the right user at the right time and at the right price. This gives us more control over the inventory and placement of our ads. It's our preferred digital buying method.

reach: the number of unique individuals or homes exposed to media.

referral traffic: users who come to your domain from other sites, without searching for you on Google retention: re-engaging users who have taken action and are superfans of your brand; can be effective if the bulk of your searches are happening at specific times

rich media ad: digital ad with motion, and additional features like an embedded video player, game or link to Pages.

real-time bidding (RTB): this is a method of purchasing unsold inventory by CPM through programmatic auction. Your CPM bid may be overruled by other advertisers and is not guaranteed. The highest bid takes inventory priority.

search engine marketing (SEM): examples of SEM are the advertisements that appear on Google Search, Bing Search or Yahoo Search. Your ad would appear based on the search criteria, keywords and your maximum budget.

social bookmarking: aggregation, rating, describing and publishing "bookmarks" – links to web pages or other content standard display ad unit: an online banner that falls within the usual sizes

Glossary of Terms

streaming audio: streaming audio refers to listening to content that arrives via an over-the-air data connection:

in-car Wi-Fi or the data signal from your cellphone. This also includes devices such as smart speakers or desktop.

The Trade Desk: The Trade Desk is a demand side platform (DSP) that uses programmatic advertising for media buying to get more efficient targeting and optimize digital media, allowing us to layer on third-party data across multiple publishers.

unique visitor: someone visiting a website for the first time that day or time period.

video completion rate (VCR): the percentage of times the video played to the end.

view-through click (VTC): helps you measure the effectiveness of your ad campaign. A view-through click would mean that a customer saw your ad, did not click; however, in a later session, visited your website and took action.
