Russell Lakes SWA - Saguache County

From the small town of Saguache in the northwest corner of the valley, go 9 miles south on US 285 to County Road R and then 1 1/2 miles east (left) to the access roads on the right. The first access road dead-ends at the parking and camping area that serves Davey and Harrence Lakes. The second access road also leads to a parking and camping area. Another parking area is located on US 285 about 1 mile south of County Road R. And another parking area is located on the south end of the property. To get there, go 2 miles south of County Road R on the highway and then 4 miles east (left) on County road N to the access road.

Wildlife Area Offers:
Hunting: Rabbit, Dove, Waterfowl
