Basis and Purpose:

Extending the refund opportunity for Keep Colorado Wild passes purchased in error

In 2022, regulations were adopted to allow for the refund of Keep Colorado Wild (KCW) passes and prorated refunds for over lapping annual passes with KCW passes. As part of that change, the regulations included a sunset date of December 31, 2024 for refunds. Removing the sunset date for the KCW pass refund allows CPW to maintain the current level of customer service for the many customers who still accidentally opt-in to the KCW pass during their vehicle registration process. Keeping these refunds in place stands as a corrective remedy for both customer and Department of Motor Vehicle agent errors when customers are accidently opted-in, and pay for the KCW pass.

However, the regulations for the prorated overlapping annual pass refunds will expire as planned at the end of 2024. After two-full years of KCW pass implementation, all existing resident annual CPW pass holders have had the opportunity to opt-in for the reduced KCW pass and there are few remaining situations where an overlapping annual refund would still be necessary.

Providing Aspen Leaf Lifetime pass holders Annual Transferable passes

The Aspen Leaf Lifetime pass was approved by the General Assembly in 2010 (Senate Bill 10-071) as a three-year pilot program expiring on March 1, 2014. The Aspen Leaf Lifetime pass could be purchased one time by Colorado residents who were 64 or over, and would be redeemed for one Aspen Leaf Annual pass each year for one vehicle as long as the customer is a Colorado resident and their vehicle is registered in Colorado.

Due to certain life events, Aspen Leaf Lifetime pass holders may no longer be able to operate or even own a vehicle, but may still wish to visit Colorado State Parks. If an Aspen Leaf Lifetime pass holder no longer owns a vehicle due to being unable to drive or other reason, the individual may rely on someone to drive them. The customer is then unable to utilize the Aspen Leaf Lifetime pass as the pass was issued to them annually as an affixed vehicle pass that is non-transferable.

The regulation now provides a transferable pass to Aspen Leaf Lifetime pass holders providing these long-term customers with an opportunity to continue visiting our great Colorado State Parks, even if they do not drive themselves. The pass holder will still need to be present in the vehicle to be allowed entry, but the pass will no longer be specific to a motor vehicle that they own.

The statements of basis and purpose for these regulations can be obtained from the Colorado Division of Parks and Wildlife, Office of the Regulations Manager by emailing dnr_cpw_planning@state.co.us or by visiting the Division of Parks and Wildlife headquarters at 6060 Broadway, Denver, CO, 80216.

The primary statutory authority for these regulations can be found in § 24-4-103, C.R.S., and the state Parks Act, §§ 33-10-101 to 33-33-113, C.R.S., and specifically including, but not limited to: §§ 33-10-106 and 33-10-107, C.R.S.

EFFECTIVE DATE - THESE REGULATIONS SHALL BECOME EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2024 AND SHALL REMAIN IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT UNTIL REPEALED, AMENDED OR SUPERSEDED.

APPROVED AND ADOPTED BY THE PARKS AND WILDLIFE COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF COLORADO THIS 22ND DAY OF AUGUST 2024.

Basis and Purpose:

Removing Harmsen Ranch house from the quest house program

The Harmsen Ranch at Golden Gate Canyon State Park is a “premium four-bedroom cabin.” The house is in an isolated area of the park outside of any designated campground area making it logistically difficult for maintenance, check-in/out procedures and snow removal. The water system is also on a single well, which can result in the house running out of water. The park is also required to provide linen and housekeeping services for the four bedroom, two bathroom home and the operating expenses have been increasing over the years. Data analyzed since 2020 shows a loss of revenue over the last two years (-$4300 and -$3875 respectively in 2022 and 2023). Beginning November 1, 2024 the public will no longer be able to reserve the house; however, the park will still maintain five cabins and two yurts, which are available for the public year round.
