If your Colorado State Driver License or Colorado State Identification card was issued or renewed less than six months:

You must provide additional documentation of at least two sources from this list to prove that you have been a resident for the required six months. For example, if you are using your phone bill as part of your proof, you must provide a phone bill from each of the past six months plus at least one other item from this list that would reflect residency of the last six consecutive months.

Owning property in the state of Colorado does not establish residency.

Acceptable documentation:

- Income Sources (Pay stubs, Social Security check stubs)
- Utility Bills (phone, electric, gas, cable, etc.)
- State Income Tax Documents (as full time resident)
- Leasehold - Lease Agreements - Rent Receipts
- Motor Vehicle Registration
- Voter Registration Card

Armed Forces Personnel:

Armed Forces personnel on active duty in Colorado under permanent orders are eligible to purchase or apply for “resident” hunting or fishing licenses. Armed forces personnel who maintain Colorado as their “Home of Record” are eligible to purchase or apply for “resident” hunting or fishing licenses. Military Member’s spouse and/or dependents share the same residency status.

Acceptable documentation:

- Military Orders (PCS)
- Official Military Documentation

Student:

Full-time students enrolled in any accredited trade school, college, or university in Colorado for the past six months can purchase or apply for “resident” hunting and fishing licenses. Colorado residents who attend trade school or college on a full-time basis out-of-state and pay non-resident tuition are considered “residents” and can continue to purchase or apply for “resident” licenses.

Acceptable documentation:

- School Transcripts
- Class Schedule
- Proof of Payment
- Valid Student Identification Card
- Non-Resident tuition payment or proof of Non-Resident Status with current transcripts
