

Hunting Blind Locations

Waterfowl Hunting

Waterfowl hunting is permitted only during the legal, regular waterfowl seasons and only on Wednesdays and Saturdays. This activity is restricted to blinds located north of the dam, and registration is required. One specially designed blind is available for disabled hunters. Contact the Ranger office for current hunting restrictions and information. No other hunting or trapping is permitted in the park.

Waterfowl Hunting at Barr Lake State Park

Hunting Blind Information

- Waterfowl hunting blinds may be reserved 14 days in advance, 24/7.
- Each hunter may only reserve one blind per hunting day.
- Reserved blinds unoccupied by 7 a.m., and vacated blinds, are available on a “first-come” “first-serve” basis.
- All hunters must check-in prior to starting, and check-out after finishing at the hunting kiosk located at the East entrance.
- Once a blind has been reserved or occupied by a hunter, no one else may check-in to that blind until it is vacated and checked-out.
- Blind #14 is a disabled accessible blind, and is only reservable by disabled hunters and accompanying individuals.
- Disabled hunters may drive to the blind.

Rules and Regulations

1. Waterfowl hunting is only permitted on Wednesdays and Saturdays during the Northern Front Range season for Geese, and the Central Flyway season for Ducks. No other hunting is permitted.
2. Hunting is only permitted from 30 minutes prior to sunrise until sunset.
