

1. Reservations are required to hunt at Boyd lake. Reservations can be made at cpwshop.com or call 1-800-244-5613.
2. Hunt within the designated HUNT ZONE boundaries only. These boundaries are marked on the map in red and at the hunting site with red posts and/or red and white signs. The water line is a boundary. You may put decoys out, but you may not hunt from the water or ice.
3. Firearms must be unloaded outside the Hunt Zone area. Load weapons only when in position and ready to hunt inside Hunt Zone. Unload before returning to vehicle.
4. Do not drive into the Hunt Zone. Vehicles are not allowed off of the asphalt roadways and parking lots. You must walk all of your hunting equipment down to the site.
5. Shoot only during legal shooting hours. You may hunt from 1/2 hour before sunrise until sunset.
6. Do NOT shoot to the west or in the direction of boaters.
7. You must possess, and have available for inspection, all current required hunting licenses and stamps.
8. Only NON-TOXIC shot is allowed. You cannot use or have in your possession lead shot while hunting waterfowl.
9. Please pick up all litter to include spent shell casings (biodegradable casings included).

Please refer to the 2021-2022 Colorado Small Game & Waterfowl Pamphlet for dates and bag limits.
