Mariner Point Group Picnic Area

Mariner Point Group Picnic (GPA) is located within Boyd Lake State Park. This popular covered shelter is located on its own peninsula overlooking Boyd Lake and the marina.

Mariner Point Group Picnic Area Pavilion

The Mariner Point GPA has 20 (eight foot long) picnic tables which can accommodate approximately 200 people. With expansive counter space, a stainless steel sink, and 2 large charcoal grills, barbecuing is a breeze! A fireplace is also within the pavilion shelter, along with electrical lighting and outlets.

Mariner Point also boasts its own private parking lot, volleyball court and horseshoe pits. (Please bring your own volleyball. Horseshoes are available upon request). The kids will be excited when they see the playground. Innovative compost restrooms are located next to the sheltered area. The private boat ramp at the GPA can be used to park and off/on load passengers only.

RESERVATIONS

This is a reservation-only area. Reservations are accepted up to 180 days in advance for mid May-mid September. It is available from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm.

Reservations for the Mariner Point Group Picnic Area can be made at cpwshop.com or by calling the reservation number at 1-800-244-5613 up to six months in advance.
